

Accreditation

Accreditation is the process of identifying, registering and validating the eligibility of the ISF Doha Gymnasiade 2009 competition participants.

The Accreditation card identifies the participant, their exact entitlements and their access privileges. It provides the means to strictly control access to the key operational areas.

Accreditations will be produced and distributed to all persons entitled to based on the Official Forms received by the Participating Delegations.